Kath expressed thanks for the opportunity.

The new directors' pack was discussed and was thought to be a splendid idea. Colin will put it together. Job descriptions should also be included in the directors' pack.

Some of my best Friends are Women

Audition was last Sunday and there was a good response from the ladies.

Any other Business

Colin investigated the ramifications of any individual having premium bonds on behalf of the group.

Colin expressed a preference that KP shouldn't have premium bonds.

Colin proposed we should consider what to do with KP's money before the next meeting.

Lesley said we should take into consideration that we may have to pay for MD's and directors in the future.

Colin mentioned that some numbers for seating were missing; John will make 30 probably and they will be attached with elastic bands or possibly even hair bobbles!

Vony has details for the story house in Chester if anyone would like to lend a helping hand
