Productions

Bite Size Shakespeare

Very well received and almost fully booked. The adjudication was thorough and fair. The committee would like to thank Ed Green.

Oliver

Rehearsals have started. Lynn has spoken to Vic about the set. David Lightfoot will help to make the tables. There will be a good audience due to the large cast. The question was raised as to whether an extra night should be put on to accommodate the demand. It was agreed this would probably be OK if the cast have a night off before. Also it was discussed whether to take out the front row of seats to create more acting space. This can be decided at a later date.

All children to provide own costumes. A letter will be distributed underlining that everyone is responsible for their own belongings. There is a need for an Epi pen but the possible administration of this has been covered by a parent who has been CRB checked.

Box office will be opened in December. Mike is designing the poster

May Play

Chris Mapp has agreed to direct the May play. The committee considered the plays he put forward but have discounted 2 suggestions, Habeus Corpus and Noises Off. Charlies Aunt is a possibility but Lynn will ask him to read Lord Aurthur Savilles Crime also. Lynn will email Chris to discuss further.

Chris will need a producer for his play.

Some of my Best Friends are Women (19 22 October 2016) Director – Colin Smith)

This is circulating at the moment and everyone seems to like it.

Possible future Productions

There was some discussion about possible future productions and the timing of them. Plays to consider are : The Vicar of Dibley , Cinderella and the Mouses Tale.

NODA/CTG

Barry Dilworth has been appointed the Noda rep and would like 2 tickets for Oliver plus 1 other which he will pay for.

Players' Social Matters

The Christmas Party is booked for 11 December

Any other Business

Malcolm sent a proposal to put a commemorative plaque in the lighting gallery to recognise all the good work of John Birtles. It seemed an appropriate place as he was instrumental in the introduction of the lighting gallery and the committee agreed that plaque was a good idea.

Date for next meeting set for 1st week in January unless any matters arise before
